

THE WOMEN'S CENTER PRESENTS
GLOBAL PERSPECTIVES FEATURING:

JULIE GARREAU

Julie Garreau is a member of the Cheyenne River Sioux Tribe and is the executive director of the Cheyenne River Youth Project. She is the recipient of numerous awards and has helped in creating countless programs to empower Lakota youth.

Join us in learning about her innovative initiatives including, Red Can Graffiti jam. This embodies the global graffiti art movement with the indigenous culture and stories. It brings together the community and allows youth to express and explore their unique identities.
