

Radical Words:
Chrystos
at ECPL

Saturday, June 16
3:00 pm
Greg L. Reese
Performing Arts Center

There is no way to inspire people to social change without art.
– Chrystos

Join ECPL, Twelve Literary Arts, and the Cleveland LGBT Center in welcoming the legendary award-winning poet, Chrystos for a poetry reading. Winner of the Audre Lorde International Poetry Competition and Sappho Award of Distinction, Chrystos' radical work examines themes of social justice, feminism, and Native rights.

