

AWARD DETAILS

The California Indian Law Association is proud to announce that it will be offering two $5,000 scholarships to current Native American law school students to assist with law school expenses.

These new scholarships are made possible through a generous donation from the San Manuel Band of Mission Indians.

SUBMISSION DETAILS

Please forward your complete application materials to calindianlaw@gmail.com
Attn: John Haney
by March 8, 2019

SCHOLARSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT

California Indian Law Association

SCHOLARSHIP REQUIREMENTS

(1) Statement of Eligibility

Applicants must be either a current: (1) Native American law school student studying in a California law school; (2) affiliated with federally or non-federally recognized California Tribe studying in any US law school; and/or (3) Native American law school student studying in any US law school, but planning on taking the California Bar and practicing in California. Please clearly state which requirement you meet in your personal statement.

Preference will be given to applicants affiliated with federally or non-federally recognized California Tribes, but all Native American law school students are encouraged to apply.

(2) Personal Statement

In a personal statement, please describe: (1) your past, present, and future commitment to serving Native American communities; (2) leadership and/or community service roles you currently have or have held in the past; and/or (3) what you hope to do with your law degree.

Please limit your statement to three pages.

(3) Resume

(4) Contact Information for 1 Academic and 1 Professional Reference

(5) Unofficial Law School Transcript

(6) Complete Scholarship Application Form

APPLICATIONS DUE MARCH 8, 2019

Learn more at calindianlaw.org